TORAH PORTION

Genesis 28:1-5 And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, You shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

Genesis 28:8,9 And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father, Then went Esau unto Ishmael and took unto the wives which he had Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife.

Genesis 28:10,11 And Jacob went out from Beersheba and went toward Haran. And he lighted (came to) on a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set, and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

Genesis 28:12,13 And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: And behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it. And, behold, the LORD stood above it(HIM), and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: The land where on thou lie, to you will I give it, and to your seed.

John 1:49-51 Nathanael said to him, Rabbi, you are the Son of God, you are King of Israel! In answer Jesus said to him, You have faith because I said to you, I saw you under the fig-tree. You will see greater things than these. And he said to him, Truly I say to you all, You will see heaven opening and God's angels going up and coming down on the Son of man.

Isaiah 33:22 For the LORD is our Judge, the LORD is our Lawgiver, the LORD is our King; He will save us.

John 3:13 And no man has ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

Proverbs 30:4 Who hath ascended up into heaven, and descended? Who hath gathered the wind in his fists? Who hath bound the waters in his garment? Who hath established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou knowest?

Genesis 28:15 And, behold, I am with you, and will keep you in all places where you go, and will bring you again into this land, for I will not leave you, until I have done that which I have spoken to you of.

Genesis 28:17-19a And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! This is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven. And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it. And he called the name of that place Bethel.

Genesis 28:20-22 Then Jacob took an oath, and said, If God will be with me, and keep me safe on my journey, and give me food and clothing to put on, So that I come again to my father's house in peace, then I will take the Lord to be my God, And this stone which I have put up for a pillar will be God's house: And of all you give me, I will give a tenth part to you.

Genesis 29:1,2 Then Jacob went on his journey, and came into the land of the people of the east. And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it, for out of that well they watered the flocks: And a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

Genesis 29:4-6 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran are we. And he said to them, Have you any knowledge of Laban, the son of Nahor? And they said, We have. And he said to them, Is he well? And they said, He is well, and here is Rachel his daughter coming with the sheep.

Genesis 29:10,11 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother. And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

Genesis 29:15 And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? Tell me, what shall thy wages be?

Genesis 29:18-20 And Jacob loved Rachel, and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter. And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: Abide with me. And Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

Genesis 29:22,23 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place and made a feast. And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him, and he went in unto her.

Genesis 29:25-27 And in the morning, Jacob saw that it was Leah: And he said to Laban, What have you done to me? Was I not working for you so that I might have Rachel? Why have you been false to me? And Laban said, In our country we do not let the younger daughter be married before the older. Let the week of the bride-feast come to its end and then we will give you the other in addition, if you will be my servant for another seven years. And Jacob did so and fulfilled her week, and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife.

Genesis 29:33 And she conceived again and bare a son, and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: And she called his name Simeon.

Genesis 29:34,35 And she was with child again, and gave birth to a son; and said, Now at last my husband will be united to me, because I have given him three sons: So he was named Levi. And she was with child again and gave birth to a son: And she said, This time I will give praise to the Lord: So, he was named Judah, after this she had no more children for a time.

Genesis 30:5-8 And Bilhah became with child and gave birth to a son. Then Rachel said, God has been my judge, and has given ear to my voice, and has given me a son, so he was named Dan. And again Bilhah, Rachel's servant, was with child, and gave birth to a second son. And Rachel said, I have had a great fight with my sister, and I have overcome her: And she gave the child the name Naphtali.

Genesis 30:9-13 When it was clear to Leah that she would have no more children for a time, she gave Zilpah, her servant, to Jacob as a wife. And Zilpah, Leah's servant, gave birth to a son. And Leah said, It has gone well for me: And she gave him the name Gad. And Zilpah, Leah's servant, gave birth to a second son. And Leah said, Happy am I! And all women will give witness to my joy: And she gave him the name Asher.

Genesis 30:18,19 Then Leah said, God has made payment to me for giving my servant-girl to my husband: So she gave her son the name Issachar. And again Leah became with child, and she gave Jacob a sixth son.

Genesis 30:20,21 And she said, God has given me a good bride-price, now at last will I have my husband living with me, for I have given him six sons: And she gave him the name Zebulun. After that she had a daughter, to whom she gave the name Dinah.

Genesis 30:24 And she gave him the name Joseph, saying, May the Lord give me another son.

Genesis 31:41 These twenty years I have been in your house, I was your servant for fourteen years because of your daughters, and for six years I kept your flock, and ten times was my payment changed.

Genesis 32:1-4 And on his way, Jacob came face to face with the angels of God. And when he saw them, he said, This is the army of God: So, he gave that place the name of Mahanaim. Now Jacob sent servants before him to Esau, his brother, in the land of Seir, the country of Edom, And he gave them orders to say these words to Esau: Your servant Jacob says, Till now I have been living with Laban.

2 SAMUEL 17

2 Samuel 17:15 Then Hushai (the Archite) said to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, This is the suggestion made by Ahithophel to Absalom and the responsible men of Israel, and this is what I said to them.

2 Samuel 17:16 So now send the news quickly to David.

2 Samuel 17:17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were waiting by En-rogel, and a servant-girl went from time to time and gave them news and they went with the news to King David, for it was not wise for them to let themselves be seen coming into the town.

2 Samuel 17:18,19 But a boy saw them, and gave word of it to Absalom: So, the two of them went away quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim who had a waterhole in his garden, and they went down into it. And a woman put a cover over the hole, and put crushed grain on top of it, and no one had any knowledge of it.

2 Samuel 17:20 And Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house and said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said to them, They have gone from here to the stream. And after searching for them, and seeing nothing of them, they went back to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 17:22 So David and all the people who were with him went up over Jordan: When dawn came, every one of them had gone over Jordan.

2 Samuel 17:23 Now when Ahithophel saw that his suggestion was not acted on, he got his ass ready, and went back to his house, to the town where he came from, and having put his house in order, he put himself to death by hanging, so, he came to his end and was put in the resting-place of his father.

2 Samuel 17:25 And Absalom put Amasa at the head of the army in place of Joab.

2 Samuel 17:25 Now Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra the Ishmaelite, who had been the lover of Abigail, the daughter of Jesse, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

2 Samuel 18:2 And David sent the people out, a third of them under the orders of Joab, and a third under the orders of Abishai, son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third under Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, And I myself will certainly go out with you.

2 Samuel 18:3 But the people said, It is better for you not to go out: For if we are put to flight, they will not give a thought to us, and if death overtakes half of us, it will be nothing to them: But you are of more value than ten thousand of us: So it is better for you to be ready to come to our help from this town.

2 Samuel 18:5 And the king gave orders to Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Because of me, be gentle to the young man Absalom. And this order about Absalom was given in the hearing of all the people.

2 Samuel 18:9,10 And Absalom came across some of David's men. And Absalom was seated on his mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a great tree, and his head became fixed in the tree and he was lifted up between earth and heaven, and the beast under him went on. And a certain man saw it and said to Joab, I saw Absalom hanging in a tree.

2 Samuel 18:11,12 And Joab said to the man who had given him the news, If you saw this, why did you not put your sword through him, and I would have given you ten bits of silver and a band for your robe? And the man said to Joab, Even if you gave me a thousand bits of silver, I would not put out my hand against the king's son: for in our hearing the king gave orders to you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Take care that the young man Absalom is not touched.

2 Samuel 18:14-17 Then Joab said, I would have made it safe for you. And he took three spears in his hand, and put them through Absalom's heart, while he was still living, in the branches of the tree. And ten young men, servants of Joab, came round Absalom and put an end to him. And Joab had the horn sounded, and the people came back from going after Israel, for Joab kept them back. And they took Absalom's body and put it into a great hole in the wood and put a great mass of stones over it: And every man of Israel went in flight to his tent.

2 Samuel 18:18 Now Absalom, before his death, had put up for himself a pillar in the king's valley, naming it after himself, for he said, I have no son to keep my name in memory: And to this day it is named Absalom's pillar.

2 Samuel 18:19,20 Then Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok, said, Let me go and give the king news of how the Lord has done right in his cause against those who took up arms against him. And Joab said, You will take no news today, another day you may give him the news, but you will take no news today, because the king's son is dead.

2 Samuel 18:21,22 Then Joab said to the Cushite, Go and give the king word of what you have seen. And the Cushite, making a sign of respect to Joab, went off running. Then Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok, said to Joab again, Whatever may come of it, let me go after the Cushite. And Joab said, Why have you a desire to go, my son, seeing that you will get no reward for your news?

2 Samuel 18:23-25 Whatever may come of it, he said, I will go. Then he said to him, Go. So Ahimaaz went running by the lowland road and overtook the Cushite. Now David was seated between the two town doors, and the watchman went up to the roof of the doorways, on the wall, and, lifting up his eyes, saw a man running by himself. And the watchman gave news of it to the king. And the king said, If he is coming by himself, then he has news. And the man was travelling quickly and came near.

2 Samuel 18:26,27 Then the watchman saw another man running: And crying out in the direction of the door he said, Here is another man running by himself. And the king said, He, like the other, comes with news. And the watchman said, It seems to me that the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and his news will be good.

2 Samuel 18:28,29 And Ahimaaz, crying out to the king, said, It is well. And falling down before the king, with his face to the earth, he said, May the Lord your God be praised, who has given up the men who took up arms against my lord the king! And the king said, Is it well with the young man Absalom? And Ahimaaz said in answer, When Joab sent me, your servant, I saw a great outcry going on, but I had no knowledge of what it was.

2 Samuel 18:31-33 And then the Cushite came and said, I have news for my lord the king: Today the Lord has done right in your cause against all those who took up arms against you. And the king said to the Cushite, Is the young man Absalom safe? And the Cushite said in answer, May all the king's haters and those who do evil against the king, be as that young man is! Then the king was much moved, and went up into the room over the door, weeping, and saying, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! If only my life might have been given for yours, O Absalom, my son, my son!

2 Samuel 19:1-4 And word was given to Joab that the king was weeping and sorrowing for Absalom. And the salvation of that day was changed to sorrow for all the people: For it was said to the people, The king is in bitter grief for his son. And the people made their way back to the town quietly and secretly, as those who are shamed go secretly when they go in flight from the war. But the king, covering his face, gave a great cry, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!

2 Samuel 19:5-7 And Joab came into the house to the king and said, Today you have put to shame the faces of all your servants who even now have kept you and your sons and your daughters and your wives and all your women safe from death, For your haters, it seems, are dear to you, and your friends are hated. For you have made it clear that captains and servants are nothing to you: And now I see that if Absalom was living and we had all been dead today, it would have been right in your eyes.

2 Samuel 19:8 Then the king got up and took his seat near the town-door. And word was given to all the people that the king was in the public place: And all the people came before the king. Now all the men of Israel had gone back in flight to their tents.

2 Samuel 19:9 And through all the tribes of Israel the people were having arguments, saying, The king made us safe from the hands of those who were against us and made us free from the hands of the Philistines, and now he has gone in flight from the land, because of Absalom.

2 Samuel 19:10 And Absalom, whom we made a ruler over us, is dead in the fight. So now why do you say nothing about getting the king back? And word of what all Israel was saying came to the king.

2 Samuel 19:11,12 And King David sent word to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, Say to the responsible men of Judah, Why are you the last to take steps to get the king back to his house? You are my brothers, my bone and my flesh, why are you the last to get the king back again?

2 Samuel 19:13,14 And say to Amasa, Are you not my bone and my flesh? May God's punishment be on me, if I do not make you chief of the army before me at all times in place of Joab! And the hearts of the men of Judah were moved like one man, so that they sent to the king, saying, Come back, with all your servants.

2 Samuel 19:15,16 So the king came back, and came as far as Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, meeting the king there, to take him back with them over Jordan. And Shimei, the son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, got up quickly and went down with the men of Judah for the purpose of meeting King David.

2 Samuel 19:18b-20 And Shimei, the son of Gera, went down on his face in the dust before the king, when he was about to go over Jordan, And said to him, Let me not be judged as a sinner in your eyes, O my lord, and do not keep in mind the wrong I did on the day when my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, or take it to heart. For your servant is conscious of his sin: And so, as you see, I have come today, the first of all the sons of Joseph, for the purpose of meeting my lord the king.

2 Samuel 19:21-23 But Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, said, Is not death the right fate for Shimei, because he has been cursing the one marked by the holy oil? And David said, What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you put yourselves against me today? Is it right for any man in Israel to be put to death today? for I am certain today that I am king in Israel. So, the king said to Shimei, You will not be put to death. And the king gave him his oath.

2 Samuel 19:24-27 And Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son, came down for the purpose of meeting the king, his feet had not been cared for or his hair cut or his clothing washed from the day when the king went away till the day when he came back in peace. Now when he had come from Jerusalem to see the king, the king said to him, Why did you not come with me, Mephibosheth? And he said in answer, Because of the deceit of my servant, my lord king: For I, your servant, said to him, You are to make ready an ass and on it I will go with the king, for your servant has not the use of his feet. He has given you a false account of me: But my lord the king is like the angel of God: Do then whatever seems good to you.

2 Samuel 19:41 Then the men of Israel came to the king and said, Why have our countrymen of Judah taken you away in secret and come over Jordan with the king and all his family, because all his people are David's men?

2 Samuel 19:42 And all the men of Judah gave this answer to the men of Israel, Because the king is our near relation: Why then are you angry about this?

2 Samuel 19:43 And in answer to the men of Judah, the men of Israel said, We have ten parts in the king, and we are the first in order of birth: Why did you make nothing of us? And were we not the first to make suggestions for getting the king back? And the words of the men of Judah were more violent than the words of the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 20:1,2 Now by chance there was present a good-for-nothing person named Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: And he, sounding the horn, said, We have no part in David, or any interest in the son of Jesse: Let every man go to his tent, O Israel. So, all the men of Israel, turning away from David, went after Sheba, the son of Bichri: But the men of Judah were true to their king, going with him from Jordan as far as Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 20:3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem: And the king took the ten women to whom he had given the care of the house, and had them shut up, and gave them the necessities of life, but did not go near them. So, they were shut up till the day of their death, living as widows.

2 Samuel 20:4,5 Then the king said to Amasa, Get all the men of Judah together, and in three days be here yourself. So, Amasa went to get all the men of Judah together, but he took longer than the time David had given him.

2 Samuel 20:6 And David said to Abishai, Sheba, the son of Bichri, will do us more damage than Absalom did, so, take some of your lord's servants and go after him, before he makes himself safe in the walled towns, and gets away before our eyes.

2 Samuel 20:7 So there went after Abishai, Joab and the Cherethites and the Pelethites and all the fighting-men, they went out of Jerusalem to overtake Sheba, the son of Bichri.

2 Samuel 20:8-10 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came face to face with them. Now Joab had on his war-dress and round him a band from which his sword was hanging in its cover, and while he was walking, it came out, falling to the earth. And Joab said to Amasa, Is it well, my brother? And with his right hand he took him by the hair of his chin to give him a kiss. But Amasa did not see danger from the sword which was now in Joab's left hand, and Joab put it through his stomach so that his inside came out on to the earth, and he did not give him another blow. So, Joab and his brother Abishai went on after Sheba, the son of Bichri.
