ESM – February 21, 2026.

Parashat Terumah.

<sup>35</sup> And Yeshua went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction. <sup>36</sup> When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. <sup>37</sup> Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; <sup>38</sup> therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.” [Matthew 9:35-38]

Then he answered me, “This is the word of Adonai to Z’rubavel: ‘Not by force, and not by power, but by my Spirit,’ says Adonai-Tzva’ot. [Zechariah 4:6]

Exodus 25

ח. וַעֲשׂוּ לִי מִקְדָּשׁ וְשָׁכַנְתִּי בְּתוֹכְכֶם:

8. Ve-á•su li mik•dash ve•sha•chan•tí be•to•cham.

8. And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them.

Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is within you, whom you have [received as a gift] from God, and that you are not your own [property]? [1 Corinthians 6:19].

<sup>32</sup> “From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>33</sup> So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates. [Matthew 24]

And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another. Then many false prophets will rise up and deceive many. And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold. But he who endures to the end shall be saved. —MATTHEW 24:10–13

A brother offended is harder to win than a strong city, and contentions are like the bars of a castle. —PROVERBS 18:19

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ. —2 CORINTHIANS 10:3–5

Proverbs 18:1 - A man who isolates himself, seeks his own desire, and rages against all wise judgment.

It wasn't an enemy that reproached me. I could have handled that. But it was you, my brother, my equal, my companion. We went into the house of God. You're the one that's done me wrong. [Psalms 55:12-14]

Peter asked, “Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Up to seven times?” (Matt. 18:21).

“I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven” (Matt. 18:22).

Therefore, the kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. And when he had begun to settle accounts, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. —MATTHEW 18:23–24

But as he was not able to pay, his master commanded that he be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and that payment be made. The servant therefore fell down before him, saying, “Master, have patience with me, and I will pay you all.” Then the master of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt. —MATTHEW 18:25–27

But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii; and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, “Pay me what you owe!” —MATTHEW 18:28

So, his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, “Have patience with me, and I will pay you all.” And he would not but went and threw him into prison till he should pay the debt. —MATTHEW 18:29–30

So, when his fellow servants saw what had been done, they were very grieved and came and told their master all that had been done. Then his master, after he had called him, said to him, “You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, just as I had pity on you?” —MATTHEW 18:31–33

And his master was angry and delivered him to the torturers until he should pay all that was due to him. So, My heavenly Father also will do to you if each of you, from his heart, does not forgive his brother his trespasses. —MATTHEW 18:34–35

Acts 24:16 - <sup>16</sup>This being so, I myself always strive to have a conscience without offense toward God and men.

Psalm 119:165 - Great peace have they which love your word: and nothing shall offend them.

Matthew 5:44 - <sup>44</sup>But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you.

Psalms 35:11-14

<sup>12</sup> They reward me evil for good, To the sorrow of my soul.

<sup>13</sup> But as for me, when they were sick, My clothing was sackcloth; I humbled myself with fasting; And my prayer would return to my own heart. <sup>14</sup> I paced about as though he were my friend or brother; I bowed down heavily, as one who mourns for his mother.

And above all things have fervent love for one another, for “love will cover a multitude of sins.” —1 PETER 4:8

It is impossible that no offenses should come. —LUKE 17:1

And a servant of the Lord must not quarrel but be gentle to all, able to teach, patient, in humility correcting those who are in opposition, if God perhaps will grant them repentance, so that they may know the truth, and that they may come to their senses and escape the snare [entrapment] of the devil, having been taken captive by him to do his will. —2 TIMOTHY 2:24–26.
