Title: “Testing the Spirits”

Summary: Are you under God's Authority?

Have you ever wondered: Why did God create so many trees in the Garden of Eden whose fruit Adam and Eve could eat, yet specifically place the “Tree of the Knowledge” in the garden and command Adam not to eat its fruit?

What spiritual truth is hidden behind this seemingly simple command?

In this gathering, Pastor Mark will begin with the story of Adam in the Garden of Eden and take a deeper look at:

How did sin enter the world?

Why did God give this command?

What is the relationship between human sin and God's authority?

From Eden to the present day, how can we understand the development of our world?

How can all of this help us better understand biblical truth and God's heart?

This is more than simply revisiting a familiar Bible story. It will be an in-depth and insightful teaching that helps us look back to the beginning in Genesis and see more clearly the condition of humanity and the world we live in today.

Don't miss this important message!

We look forward to exploring this important message together!
